

Relevant Experience/Work History

Raymond Partridge has worked in various project and program management positions as well as administrative roles in the engineering consultancy and construction industry throughout the United States. Collectively, he has more than 25 years of progressive experience in residential, commercial, highway, and heavy industrial segments.

His experience covers scheduling, program and project management, all phases of construction and elements of design management. He also has contract procurement experience with particular strength in contract administration, research, risk assessment and allocation, cost and budget control and staff management. Mr. Partridge is seasoned in leading negotiations, contract development, and identifying and structuring innovative procurement, scoping and financing methods for public-private ventures.

He is well informed of regulations and public policy measures that facilitate the maintenance, operation and improvement of complex transportation infrastructures. Mr. Partridge has experience in identifying innovative solutions to challenges of advancing large complex transportation projects through alternative procurement practices such as design-build and public-private partnerships.

He holds a B.S., in Civil Engineering, from San Jose State University, CA and a M.S., in Transportation, Policy Operations and Logistics, School of Public Policy, from George Mason University, VA.

Mr. Partridge also served as President of the Genesis Preparatory School Board. He currently serves as Chair of the Board of Directors of Minority Organ Tissue and Transplant Educational Program (MOTTEP) of Richmond. He also served as MOTTEP's Secretary from November 2004 to April 2007. He is an Associate Pastor at Faith Alive International Ministries and is active in many helps and outreach ministries through his local church. Mr. Partridge is a business owner and investor and serves as Vision 5000 Training Coordinator for the Commonwealth of Virginia. As envisioned by Nasir Siddiki, Vision 5000 is a purpose driven ministry with the goal of training 5000 people to obtain knowledge and wisdom in trading the stock market to finance the end time harvest.
